

The Small Group Sermon Study

Prayer: Father, in Jesus' name, through the Holy Spirit, come and speak to us, teach us and transform us as we read, discuss and reflect on Your word.

Review the key points of the sermon.

1. What did you like or appreciate about this message?
2. What challenged you in this message?

Read the key passages of Scripture from the sermon.

3. What does this tell us about God (Father, Jesus, Holy Spirit)? What do we learn about who He is, how He feels, what actions He takes, etc.?
4. What does this passage tell us about those who follow Jesus (individually and/or the church) and/or those who don't? (How are people responding to God? What are their different responses?)
5. What does this passage tell us about other key characters, Satan, and/or the spiritual realm? What do we learn about their purpose, nature or methods?
6. What don't you understand or what other questions does this passage make you ponder?

Personal reflection: Silently re-read the key passage(s) of Scripture from the sermon, asking the Holy Spirit to speak to you.

7. What emotions does this passage or the key theme stir-up in you?
8. What do you need to surrender to Jesus? How will you respond to what God is showing you?
9. What verse, phrase or word do you need to take with you this week? How will you act on what you've heard?

Prayer: Spend time praying for one another (that we would grow in our love for God and others, that we would be transformed by what God has revealed, that we would be alert and obedient to God, etc).
