

Some people did accept him
and did believe in his name.
He gave them the right to become children of God.

John 1:12

