

Heroes of the Bible

David

Parents, below are a couple of ideas you can use at home to reinforce and further teach on the Bible story.

“This week we learned a new Bible story. Can you remind me what it was about? Excellent. Let’s do a couple of things to help us remember what we learned!”

Overview

Bible Basis: 1 Samuel 17

Bible Truth: I have God’s power too!

Snack Idea

Supplies: Grapes, string cheese and pretzels. Try to have your children create a “slingshot” out of the cheese and pretzels, using the grapes as stones.

Pray: Thank You, Jesus, for Your strength. I love You! Thank You for today’s snack. In Jesus’ name, amen.

Then EAT and practice the Bible truth, I have God’s Power too!

Craft - David’s Slingshot

Supplies:

- Construction paper
- Popsicle sticks
- Pipe cleaners or string
- Glue stick

How do to it:

- Glue the popsicle sticks onto the paper in the shape of a capital Y.
- Attach the pipe cleaner or string to both top pieces, connecting them like a sling shot!
- Write the Bible truth above the sling shot.
- Then, practice the Bible truth, I have God’s power too!

Activity

Start by asking a few questions:

- “Who was the Bible story about?”
- “What is the Bible truth?”
- “Can you tell and show me the Bible truth?”

How to play:

- Set up a paper towel roll (empty or full – feel free to decorate it to look like Goliath).
- Have child(ren) stand back and give them something soft to throw at Goliath.
- Make it challenging by changing the distance or adding different obstacles.
- If time permits, play another game (or two).
- Then, practice the Bible truth, I have God’s power too!
